Field Trip

August 6, 2012, Monday, 10:00-18:00 (Old and New Landscapes in Central Changchun: First Automobile Workshop–The International Sculpture Park–Jingyue Lake Park)

Built in 1953 and put into operation in 1956, First Automobile Workshop (FAW) created a new history of China's auto industry. After 50 years of development, the enterprise has undergone tremendous changes. Three bases, North, Northeast and Southwest, have been built up. Rooted in northeast China, FAW has successfully developed across China and facing overseas, so that the First Automobile Workshop has become one of the largest automobile enterprises of China.

Changchun World Sculpture Park is a sculpture theme park comprised by contemporary sculptures and showing various sculpture art genres. Adhering to the cultural taste of modern sculpture and holding the concept of integrating the traditional natural landscape garden construction technique, the Park represents the natural landscape garden-style sculpture park with future culture. By making full advantage of the natural environmental condition, mixing the traditional park mood and modern design concept, the Park has formed its unique feature. With its number of works, variety of art styles, and the high level of the art works, Changchun World Sculpture Park can be world class.

Jingyue Lake Park is a national AAAAA level forest park, known as “Asia’s first artificial woodlands”. Located in the transition part between the eastern mountain and western grassland in Jilin province, it is on the low hills of the Changbai Mountain Range, with the altitude ranges from 220-406m. The scenery there is gorgeous and fantastic all year round; meanwhile, it can provide the services like restaurant, vacation, entertainment, fitness, etc. The Jingyue Lake Park has developed into an integrated, multi-functional and high-taste scenic tourist destination.
